Second Annual Marc A. Karpo, DPM Goldfarb Clinical Conference Poster Competition 2018 Exhibit Guidelines

For consideration of your research to be presented via Poster Exhibition at the Goldfarb Clinical Conference, November 8-11, 2018, you should submit your application via our online submission system at http://tinyurl.com/GoldfarbAbstractPoster. Please keep in mind, that not all submissions are selected for exhibition.

Abstract submission deadline: June 15, 2018. No extensions will be granted.

Notification regarding acceptance: No later than August 3, 2018

Submission Guidelines

Posters will be accepted into one of two divisions: Scientific or Case Division.

Scientific Division: The presentation of data, either prospective or retrospective that begins with a hypothesis and poses a questions to be answered. The research allows for drawing of conclusions to negate or validate the hypothesis.

Case Division: A collection and presentation of data regarding a particular patient or group of patients that presents conclusions only about that particular patient or patient group.

A Case Series can allow the authors to occasionally draw conclusions that may extrapolate to a larger patient population. For these situations, the scientific division should be considered for abstract submission.

Within each Division, research topics must be relevant to Podiatric Medicine and Surgery and should fall into one of the following classifications:

- Biomechanics/prosthetics/orthotics
- Diabetic foot/wounds
- Forefoot Reconstruction
- Rearfoot Reconstruction/Trauma
- Medicine/Other

Level of evidence should also be reported.

I	Randomized, controlled trials. Free from serious doubts about generalizability, bias and flaws in research design. Includes systematic review of other relevant published research to validate conclusions.
П	Prospective/Retrospective, non-randomized studies. Develop diagnostic criteria and treatment recommendations based on the results, but with a limited review of the published research.

III	Case-controlled and/or Retrospective comparative studies of lesser quality. Nonconsecutive studies without consistently applied reference standards.
IV	Expert consensus, systematic reviews or clinical practice guidelines. Includes Case series/Case reports.
V	Expert opinion based on limited research, or the opinion of an individual based on non-researched evidence.

This chart was adapted from the following:

- 1. Centre for Evidenced-Based Medicine, Oxford, UK. www.cebm.net
- 2. Newhouse R, Dearholt S, Poe S, Pugh LC, White K. The Johns Hopkins Nursing Evidence-based Practice Rating Scale. 2005. Baltimore, MD, The Johns Hopkins Hospital; Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing.

Research should be complete by the time of submission.

Once the abstract is submitted titles cannot be changed and additional authors cannot be added.

All submissions must have at least one podiatric physician listed as an author.

At least one author must be a member in good standing with the American Podiatric Medical Association (APMA).

At least one author must register for and attend the Goldfarb Clinical Conference. Registration for one author will be complimentary; further instructions on how to register for this event will be included in the Notification of Acceptance, sent on or around August 3, 2018.

The corresponding author should be listed in the abstract. All communications regarding acceptance/denial and further instructions will be communicated to the corresponding author only.

Industry sponsored abstracts can be submitted for consideration. Abstracts are considered industry sponsored if grants, research support, or honoraria's or any other financial or material support have been provided.

Abstracts should not be commercial in nature or overtly promote any product or device.

An Author Disclosure must be completed by each author listed on the accepted poster.

PDF Submission

In addition to displaying your research throughout the conference, we are asking that a PDF form of your finalized poster be submitted in advance. PDF's of the poster should be uploaded to the website no later than October 22, 2018. Instructions for upload will be included in the Notification of Acceptance, sent on or around August 3, 2018.
